```java
package Practicals;

public class Prac1 {

            static int recursiveSteps = 0;
            static int iterativeSteps = 0;

            // Recursive Fibonacci with step count
            public static int fibonacciRecursive(int n) {
                recursiveSteps++;
                if (n <= 1) {
                    return n;
                }
                return fibonacciRecursive(n - 1) + fibonacciRecursive(n - 2);
            }

            // Non-recursive Fibonacci with step count
            public static int fibonacciNonRecursive(int n) {
                iterativeSteps++;
                if (n <= 1) {
                    return n;
                }
                int prev = 0, curr = 1;
                for (int i = 2; i <= n; i++) {
                    int next = prev + curr;
                    prev = curr;
                    curr = next;
                    iterativeSteps++;
                }
                return curr;
            }

            public static void main(String[] args) {
                int n = 10;

                // Calculate Fibonacci numbers
                int fibRec = fibonacciRecursive(n);
                int fibIter = fibonacciNonRecursive(n);

                // Display results
                System.out.println("Fibonacci number at position " + n + " (Recursive): " + fibRec); System.out.println("Fibonacci number at position " + n + " (Non-Recursive): " + fibIter);

                // Step counts
                System.out.println("\nStep Count (Recursive): " + recursiveSteps); System.out.println("Step Count (Non-Recursive): " +
iterativeSteps);

                // Complexity Analysis
                System.out.println("\n--- Time and Space Complexity Analysis ---");
                System.out.println("Recursive: Time = O(2^n), Space = O(n)");
                System.out.println("Non-Recursive: Time = O(n), Space = O(1)");
            }
        }
```